Families Making the Connection - School Meals Make a Difference!

All public schools in North Carolina offer school lunch. Most also offer school breakfast. All students can participate in school meal programs. Families can apply to see if they qualify for school meal benefits for their students. Ask your school about a meal application.

Many students and their families depend on school meals. School meals offer a variety of lean proteins, whole grains, fruits, vegetables, lowfat or fat free dairy, and locally grown ingredients. School meals make a difference!
